

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

JACOB ANDREW JOHNSTON,

Plaintiff,

v.

JESSICA HARRARA, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 3:22-cv-05935-BJR-GJL

PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

This is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Defendants have now filed an answer to Plaintiff's Complaint. Accordingly, the Court hereby establishes the following pretrial schedule:

(1) Discovery

All discovery shall be completed by October 30, 2023. Service of responses to interrogatories and to requests to produce, and the taking of depositions, shall be completed by this date. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 33(a) requires answers or objections to be served within thirty (30) days after service of the interrogatories. The serving party, therefore, must serve his/her discovery requests at least thirty (30) days before the deadline in order to allow the

1 other party time to answer. Discovery requests must be served directly on the opposing party's 2 counsel by mail.

3 (2) Motion to Compel to Discovery

4 Any motion to compel discovery shall be filed not later than October 9, 2023. Before
5 filing a discovery motion, the parties must confer and attempt to resolve their differences. A 6 good faith effort to confer with a party or person not making a disclosure or discovery requires a
7 face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference. If unable to resolve their differences, the party
8 filing the discovery motion must, either within the motion to compel or in a separate affidavit
9 attached to the motion to compel, list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. If the 10 moving party fails to include such a certification, the Court may deny the motion without 11 addressing the merits of the dispute. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37 and LCR 37(a)(1).

12 The motion to compel must: (1) list the matters on which the parties were unable to 13 agree; (2) identify the nature and relevance of the documents and materials sought; (3) list the 14 reason(s) why the mandatory initial disclosures were inadequate; and, (4) explain why the 15 discovery sought is proportional to the needs of the case, considering the importance of the 16 issues at stake in the action, the amount in controversy, the parties' relative access to relevant 17 information, the parties' resources, the importance of the discovery in resolving the issues, and 18 whether the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit.

19 (3) Dispositive Motions

20 Any dispositive motion shall be filed and served by December 15, 2023. Pursuant to 21 LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a part of the 22 motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption 23 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for

1 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar. Dispositive motions shall be noted for 2 consideration on a date no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the 3 motion.

4 All briefs and affidavits in opposition to any motion shall be filed and served pursuant to 5 the requirements of Rule 7 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and LCR 7. The party making
6 a motion may file and serve a reply to the opposing party's briefs and affidavits. Any reply brief
7 shall also be filed and served pursuant to the requirements of Rule 7 of the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure and LCR 7.

9 Defendants are reminded that they MUST serve a Rand notice, in a separate document, 10 concurrently with motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment so that pro se plaintiffs 11 will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of them in order to oppose those 12 motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir. 2012). The Ninth Circuit has set forth 13 model language for such notices:

14 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 15 Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

16 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
17 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine 18 issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would 19 affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled 20 to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing 21 makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or 22 other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says.
23 Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to 24 interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

1 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added). Defendants who fail to 2 file and serve the required Rand notice on the plaintiff(s) may have their motion stricken from 3 the Court's calendar with leave to re-file.

4 (4) Trial, Joint Pretrial Statement, and Expert Disclosures

5 A trial date and deadlines for serving expert disclosures and filing a Joint Pretrial
6 Statement may be established at a later date pending the outcome of any dispositive motions.

7 (5) Proof of Service and Sanctions

8 All motions, pretrial statements, and other filings shall be accompanied by proof that 9 such documents have been served upon counsel for the opposing party or upon any party acting 10 pro se. The proof of service shall show the day and manner of service and may be by written 11 acknowledgment of service, by certificate of a member of the bar of this Court, by affidavit of 12 the person who served the papers, or by any other proof satisfactory to the Court. Prisoners 13 subject to the Court's Mandatory E-Filing Project may comply with this requirement by 14 certifying as to the date the document(s) is handed to the law librarian for scanning. Failure to 15 comply with the provisions of the Order can result in dismissal/default judgment or other 16 appropriate sanctions.

17 (6) Extensions

18 The deadlines contained in this Order are firm and will not be extended by the Court
19 except upon application to the Court with a showing of good cause.

20 (7) Address

21 The parties are to promptly update the Court with any change of address or other contact 22 information.

1 (8) Consent to a U.S. Magistrate Judge

2 The parties have the right to consent to assignment of this case to a full time United 3 States Magistrate Judge, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Local Rule MJR 13, to conduct all
4 proceedings. The Western District of Washington assigns a wide range of cases to Magistrate 5 Judges. The Magistrate Judges of this District thus have significant experience in all types of 6 civil matters filed in our court. Additional information about our District's Magistrate Judges can 7 be found at www.wawd.uscourts.gov. If the parties wish to have the Honorable Magistrate Judge
8 Grady J. Leupold conduct all proceedings including trial and the entry of judgment, the parties
9 shall file a joint status report indicating that all parties consent. If any party does not consent, the 10 parties should not provide any filing to the Court.

11 (9) Instructions to Clerk

12 The Clerk of Court is directed to send a copy of this Order to Plaintiff and to counsel for 13 Defendants.

14 Dated this 31st day of May, 2023.
